

For those who are worried about living expenses due to leave or unemployment due to the influence of the new coronavirus infection

Information on emergency small-lot funds (special loans)

Chiba Prefectural Council of Social Welfare is affected by the new coronavirus infectious disease, and income decreases due to leave of absence, etc.

We lend funds to a small number of people (households).

The contact point for consultation and application is the municipal social welfare council where you live. First of all, the social welfare of the municipalities

Please contact the council by phone for inquiries and consultation.

1 Lending target

Due to the impact of the new coronavirus infection, income has decreased due to leave of absence, etc., and it is urgent and temporary.

Households that need a loan to maintain a good livelihood

* However, welfare households, those who have not worked before, gangsters and household members of gangsters are not eligible for loan.

2 Lending limit

3 Loan conditions

Borrowing

Enter

Monkey

Included

person

Within 200,000 yen (Remittance to the financial institution designated by the borrower)

- ・ Deferment period: Within 1 year
- ・ Repayment period: Within 2 years
- ・ Lending interest: No interest
- ・ Guarantor: Not required

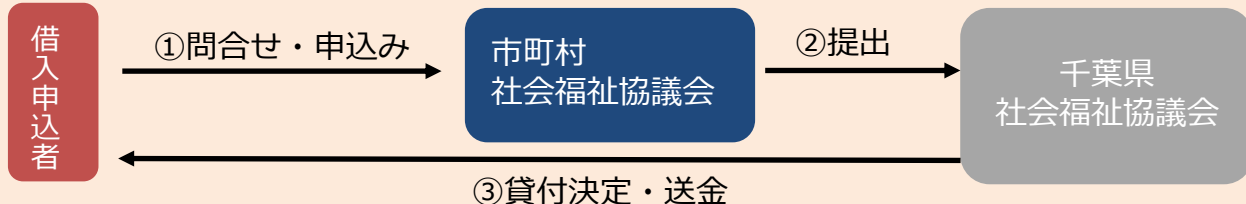

4 Application method / procedure

The window is the municipal social welfare council where you live. To prevent the spread of new coronavirus infection,

In some cases, we do not respond to the counter but send it by mail. Municipal social welfare consultation before coming to the office

Please contact us by phone for inquiries and consultations.

貸付手続きの流れ

5 Documents required for application * Other documents may be requested if necessary.

- Emergency Small Fund Special Loan Application Form
- Emergency Small Fund Special Loan Borrowing Form
- Explanation of important matters regarding special emergency small-lot fund lending
- Petition regarding the decline in income
- Self-checklist at the time of submission
- Identity verification documents (certificate with a copy of the driver's license or a photo of the applicant's face attached)
- Copy / original of resident's card (listed for all households, within 3 months after issuance)
- You can confirm the transfer account of the funds (a copy of the cash card or a copy of the cover of the passbook and the first page of the spread)
- Copy of health insurance card (only for those who have it at the time of application)
- Residence card (foreigners)

* With this special measure, it is possible to exempt households exempt from residence tax from reimbursement at the time of reimbursement. I'm supposed to be able to For inquiries and applications (Municipal Council of Social Welfare), please see the next page and the back side.